SELF NOTES BY PRINCIPAL

The traditional concept of learning is either Gurukul or four walls of the class room or the apprenticeship in some work station. That is why we live in the world of specialities and super specialities, fractionalization and compartmentalization of knowledge which have turned out to be artificial offshoots of our learning outcomes. But learning has to be holistic by bringing head, heart and hands in prefect sync with each other.

For full flowering of our personality, each object, each manifestation and each expression of nature seen, felt and realized must be adored as our teacher. While insects, birds and animals stand fully attuned to their prescribed roles, we, the Homo sapiens have converted our-selves into freaks to defy or usurp nature. Nature has always unfolded itself in countless ways to offer us nuggets of wisdom like books in running brooks. It has never indulged in any discriminatory practices.

I am of the considered view that each individual must go in for global learning. If it was possible for our sages, it cannot be impossible for us. Our great Seer Shri Guru Nanak Dev Ji with whose name our College stands associated is, was and will continue to inspire us for global learning which is best enunciated as 'Kirat Karo'(Honest living), 'Wand Chhako'(Sharing with others) and 'Naam Japo'(Focus on God). With these introductory ideas, I express my heartfelt thanks for Worthy Vice Chancellor Dr. Jaspal Singh Sandhu, assisted by Dean Academic Affairs , Prof. S.S. Behl, Registrar Dr. K.S. Kahlon and Dean College Development Council Dr. T.S. Banipal for opening the Coffers of the University for Development of this College.

On behalf of the University I welcome each one of you to the great institution which is producing University toppers in academics, sports and cultural activities. Here you will receive friendly support from all the brilliant faculty members and staff. For hassle free and seamless learning, Come one and Come all. We are here to serve you with a smile.
