December 5th, 2021, was historic day for the residents of Kalanaur Tehsil and for the local administration when the government of Punjab inaugurated Shaheed Lashman Singh Dharowali University College Kalanaur by the then deputy Chief Minister Punjab Sardar Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa. He addressed a big audience comprised of the staff and students from various university campus, government colleges, government aided college and private colleges. At first, he congratulated the Officer on Special Duty, Dr. Devi Dass Sharma on the occasion. Secondly, he emphasized the need of college for Kalanaur tehsil which lies in Majha region of Punjab. Thirdly, he asserted that since 2012 persistently the initial investment for the same was being insisted upon. Finally, the foundation stone was laid on the Adalatpur road beside the I.T.I. Kalanaur.

Moreover, he urged to develop and maintain the college such that it becomes one of the best colleges in Punjab. Primarily, he envisioned this college for promoting girls' education as she would educate two families. He quoted "A literate women can build a worthy family, thus an orderly society becomes." On turning pages of Punjab history, he remembered sacrifice of martyrs who mustered courage and got the Nankana Sahib evicted from devilish forces. Reportedly 122 sikhs were brutally set ablaze alive, mounted and burned, eventually being dumped into a well. He thus pleaded the rout to adopt truth and dare to speak truth always. To support this, he mentioned the Non-Violence Movement led by Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi. However, he saluted Sardar Bhagat Singh who was executed at the age of 23. Thus he guided the audience to look up to such exemplary revolutionaries.

On the final note, he wanted merit to triumph over allusions, "Everyone should save country, and beware of fake leaders", he said. He wished The Khadi Board and the Handicraft industry to flourish in this town, Kalanaur. He is eager to speedy economic progress of the area with establishment of small and Medium Enterprises.

Following this, The Vice Chancellor Guru Nanak Dev University, Dr. Jaspal Singh Sandhu shared felicitations on the important day. He encouraged the students to achieve good grades in their academics. In a cogent manner, he defended folks which pursue foreign education; but at the same time he instructed them, to take the undergraduate studies in their home country. He also quipped on the tapering number of boys in higher education institutions, these days; By name, he called Assistant Professor (English) Mr. Ashwani Kumar, the regular teacher in this college. He accentuated pragmatism and practicality much needed requisites for the progress of the college.

To proceed with, Assistant Professor Ashwani Kumar presented the Annual College Report In English. He highlighted the academic achievements comprising university rank holders from the college. Also, he took pride to announce a palette of courses offered in the college, and excitedly reported the surging graph of admissions since 2018. He described the role of On-Campus education and growth of mental aptitude in the academic culture. At last, he credited education to be the only reliable route for upward mobility in a stratified society.

Last but not the least; a valedictory note was delivered by Dr. Devi Dass Sharma, the O.S.D. of the college. He showed gratitude to all the dignitaries which graced the red letter day of the college. He presented mementos to the chief guest; the Vice Chancellor; and the Dean Academic (Guru Nanak Dev University Amritsar). He thanked Ms. Ankita Sharma and Mr. Sandeep Chanchal for hosting the stage. He also appreciated Mrs. Paramjit Kaur Kahlon for recitations of poems composed by her. After refreshment, the guests were bid farewell ceremoniously.
